We are delighted to invite you to attend our seminar – “Restrictive Covenants: Protections and Pitfalls.”

Our experts will examine how restrictive covenants can be used to protect your business, and where potential risks exist, providing practical tips for navigating an area which is fundamental to retail financial services advisory firms and networks.

Using our ‘Anticipate, Prevent, Cure’ model, we will explore the common themes you are likely to encounter and help you to understand and prepare for them, including:

- How restrictive covenants operate in the financial services sector
- What happens to intellectual property?
- Use of confidential information
- Key risk areas on the recruitment of new advisors
- The importance of early engagement and taking advice
- How to deal with disputes when they arise – which they frequently do
